

Student's Name:

Module 3 Review Quiz

1. Which of the following requires that both public safety and industrial emergency response organizations use a nationally recognized Incident Command System for hazmat emergencies:
  - a. OSHA Directive Number 2/59A
  - b. OSHA 1910.120(q)
  - c. 40 CFR Part 68
  - d. 29 CFR 1910.119

2. "Unity of command" means:
  - a. Work is assigned based on the functions to be performed
  - b. Lines of authority are clearly defined
  - c. Every person reports to only one supervisor
  - d. No more than five individuals should report to any one supervisor

3. At the very least, a(n) _____ must be identified on all incidents, regardless of their size:
  - a. IC
  - b. Safety Officer
  - c. Liaison Officer
  - d. Staging Officer

4. The Safety Officer, Liaison Officer, and Information Officer all have the following in common:
  - a. They are all Command Staff officers
  - b. They all report directly to the Hazmat Group Safety Officer
  - c. They are all required by federal law to be staffed at all Level III hazmat incidents
  - d. They all report to and operate from the Emergency Operations Center (EOC)

5. The ICS organizational structure develops in a _____ fashion based on the size and nature of the incident:
  - a. Modular

- b. Linear
  - c. Hierarchal
  - d. Pyramid
6. The Service Branch and the Support Branch are both elements of the:
- a. Operations Section
  - b. Planning Section
  - c. Logistics Section
  - d. Administration/Finance Section
7. Staging is an element within the:
- a. Operations Section
  - b. Planning Section
  - c. Logistics Section
  - d. Administration/Finance Section
8. Whenever a situation is encountered that could immediately cause or has caused injuries to emergency response personnel, the term _____ should precede the radio transmission:
- a. Safety alert
  - b. Emergency traffic
  - c. Distress hail
  - d. Code Urgent
9. The Hazardous Materials Group Safety Officer is responsible for:
- a. Establishing tactical objectives for the Hazardous Materials Entry Team
  - b. Determining the appropriate level of decontamination to be provided
  - c. Ensuring that health exposure logs and records are maintained for all Hazardous Materials Group personnel, as needed.
  - d. Ensuring that all hot zone operations are coordinated with the Operations Section Chief or IC to ensure tactical goals are being met.
10. Which of the following is responsible for establishing a safe refuge area, when needed:
- a. Back-up Team
  - b. Decontamination Team

- c. Site Access Control Unit
- d. Hazardous Materials Medical Unit