

Student's Name:

Module 4 Review Quiz

1. Which of the following functions establishes the playing field for the Players (responders) and the Spectators (everyone else):
  - a. Site Management and Control
  - b. Hazard and Risk Evaluation
  - c. Information Management and Resource Coordination
  - d. Implement Response Objectives

2. Site Management and Control involves:
  - a. Establishing a hot zone
  - b. Analyzing container shapes
  - c. Consulting technical information specialists
  - d. Selecting personal protective clothing

3. The primary objective of the risk evaluation process is to:
  - a. Identify the presence of improvised explosive devices (IED)
  - b. Verify the hazardous materials involved in the incident
  - c. Determine whether or not responders should intervene
  - d. Initiate public protective actions

4. Which of the following functions cannot be effectively accomplished unless a unified ICS organization is in place:
  - a. Site Management and Control
  - b. Hazard and Risk Evaluation
  - c. Select Personal Protective Clothing and Equipment
  - d. Information Management and Resource Coordination

5. Which of the Eight Step Process functions is concerned with providing regular updates to the local Emergency Operations Center (EOC), if activated:
  - a. Site Management and Control
  - b. Hazard and Risk Evaluation
  - c. Terminate the Incident
  - d. Information Management and Resource Coordination

6. Which of the following strategies is not a defensive mode response objective:
  - a. Rescue
  - b. Fire control
  - c. Spill control
  - d. Public protective actions

7. What is the minimum level of training at which personnel should be able to deliver an emergency decon:
  - a. First Responder - Awareness
  - b. First Responder - Operations
  - c. Hazardous Materials Technician
  - d. EMS/HM Level I

8. The termination of emergency response operations includes which of the following activities:
  - a. Decontamination
  - b. Clean-up operations
  - c. Leak control
  - d. Incident debriefing