

Student's Name:

Module 9 Review Quiz

1. DATA + _____ = INFORMATION
2. Specific gravity, flash point, exposures values, and vapor density are all examples of:
 - a. Data
 - b. Facts
 - c. Information
 - d. Opinion
3. Statements made or observations about something that has occurred and has been verified and validated as being true are:
 - a. Data
 - b. Facts
 - c. Information
 - d. Opinion
4. Which of the following is a common mistake made at the emergency scene regarding data:
 - a. Looking up the wrong chemical in the data base
 - b. Not copying the information down correctly
 - c. Failure to validate the data using another reference source
 - d. All of the above
5. To be useful, pre-planning documents must be:
 - a. Available online for easy and rapid access
 - b. Completed using a standardized format
 - c. Prepared in as much detail as possible, including maps and photographs
 - d. Prepared by objective, third-party persons who will not normally respond to emergencies at pre-planned facilities
6. When a Hazmat Group is organized within the ICS, the responsibility for hazmat information is usually delegated to the:

- a. Hazmat Group Supervisor
 - b. Logistics Section Chief
 - c. Liaison Officer
 - d. Situation Unit Leader
7. In order to be effective, checklists must be:
- a. NFPA 472 compliant
 - b. Updated on a regular basis
 - c. Stored electronically
 - d. Standardized across all neighboring jurisdictions
8. Supply resources differ from equipment resources in the supply resources are:
- a. Less expensive
 - b. Easier to requisition
 - c. Expendable
 - d. Don't usually require decontamination
9. Within the Hazmat Group, resources are coordinated by the:
- a. Staging Area Manager
 - b. Information Officer
 - c. Safety Officer
 - d. Resource Leader
10. The following are all units of the Service Branch of the Logistics Section, except one:
- a. Communications
 - b. Facilities
 - c. Medical (ERP Rehab)
 - d. Food